

DATES

June 23-30, 2017 - Hutchinson, Kan.

The Chianina and Maine-Anjou junior associations are excited to announce our junior national event for the summer of 2017.

Over 700 head of cattle will be exhibited by hundreds of youth from across the country.

Exhibitors will compete in a variety of leadership and personal development competitions with more than 800 people in attendance for this week long show. We would like to invite you and your company to be a part of this summer highlight for families all across the country. It is the Maine-Anjou and Chianina event of the year!
