

AMERICAN JUNIOR MAINE-ANJOU ASSOCIATION

American Junior Maine-Anjou Association Youth Activities and Communications Intern

Platte City, MO. - The American Junior Maine-Anjou Association (AJMAA) is offering a paid internship opportunity for a collegiate upperclassman with an interest in animal agriculture and association work the summer of 2018.

Successful candidate(s) should be enrolled in an agriculture-related major.

Applicants should be self-motivated, detail oriented and outgoing.

Applicant(s) will work extensively with the planning and execution of the AJMAA's National Junior Maine-Anjou Show and the publishing of the Maine-Anjou Voice.

Applicant(s) will work in the AJMAA office located in Platte City, Mo. and will be expected to begin duties as early as May 1 and no later than May 14, 2018 for a term ending by August 2018.

Responsibilities will include:

- Help organize and run the 2018 National Junior Maine-Anjou Show held in Grand Island, Neb.
 - Pre-show correspondence and social media.
 - Processing entries.
 - Cattle/exhibitor check-in.
 - Tracking/tallying show/contest points.
- Producing the daily newsletter for the National Junior Heifer Show.
 - Contest organization/preparation.
- Assist with the reporting of the National Junior Maine-Anjou Show coverage through articles and press releases.
- Aid in the production of the August/September issue of the Maine-Anjou Voice.
 - Assist with post-show activities.

Deadline for application is Feb. 14, 2018.

Applicants for the AJMAA internship can e-mail a cover letter, resume and three references to Lindsey Broek at the following address:

Lindsey@amaapc.com

American Junior Maine-Anjou Association
Director of Youth - Lindsey Broek